

Quan Yin Virtual Class # 4

Rewiring and Extending the Network

We have examined the 3 lower Chakra centers that are coined as the BODY MIND and once it vibrates at a higher frequency the Christ Seed within the heart can now begin to grow. It needs a clear stretch of purified soil to hold its roots of light fibres. The young roots must reach the new magnetic grid of the Earth and anchor within its new matrix of consciousness. We know that the old root is programmed with our unique qualities and attributes that we have accumulated throughout many life times and these files have to be re-programmed to match the new root system. This is done through the re-programming of our blueprints in the Akashic records preparing the way for DNA numbers 2 and 8. Everything is interconnected, interrelated, intertwined and woven in a matrix that the human mind cannot fathom in the 3D Duality. Every layer of the matrix has to be rewired and re-programmed just like a computer that has to be upgraded and redesigned to meet the requirements of the 5th Dimensional reality it is aiming for. Like the caterpillar the spiritual initiate into enlightenment must make the choice of complete surrender of everything it has ever known. Not one speck of 'dirt' can be kept therefore every heavy pattern of old habits, addictions, thought forms, words and emotions must be eradicated. No carry-on luggage, no dirty laundry is allowed on the Ascension-Airline ☺

The Goddess reminds us again that there are many pathways available for every human right now. Hers as we realize is not the easiest one. Imagine studying to become a medical doctor versus studying to become a nurse. Both very important and necessary human jobs but are not the same in the perception of how easy or hard the study is. What is your commitment to your choice based on your passion and willingness to work on the Self???

We have created passwords to access many computer files and these are mostly in numerical signs. The universe itself was and is created based on mathematical computations that involve numbers. The Ultimate Divine Mother responds to her unique code of 33 and when another 3 is added as 333 it becomes the signature of the Goddess Quan Yin. When it enters your life, she brings you the message that you are given a choice of listening to and accepting of, the messages of the Divine Feminine Creator. It is the ultimate surrendering to the transformation of the energies of the Ego-warrior towards complete balance. The warrior energy needs to be tempered with the flow of nurturing, compassion and loving frequencies of the Divine Feminine. The numerical energy of 333 is a powerful message towards your choices, for this energy is key to awareness of the crossroads. It carries 3 levels of potentials of possibilities every time you make your choices. The first 3 is the strength of the triangle. It is the strongest, sacred, geometric base for any structure of manifested creation. These sacred geometric structures are part of our construct as humans and are the base of everything in Nature. Imagine a lighthouse with a strong base that is made up of multiple triangles. The second layer is the value of the double 3 which equals to 6 ($3+3$) is the energy that throws you into the crossroads of choice. On one side is the choice of the Duality - world. This shows that you have chosen to anchor yourself into 3D and to continue with the heavy, emotional shadow experiences in this life time. On the other side of the coin is the potential of entering the road to mastery. It is a very strong strand that leads into the spiritual value of the 666 (path of Mastery or the deeper immersion into Duality). Which side do you choose to enter? Both are of equal value to the Divine Creator. Remember that every choice you make is fully honored and supported by your angelic/soul team. In their perspective there is no WRONG or RIGHT choice, each choice is just ONE STEP on the journey of Soul-exploration into the process of EVOLUTION.

When you take full responsibility for your choices and enter the Adult game-board you give yourself the potential of the third layer, the value of 9 ($3+3+3$) which is the possibility and probability of completion of one set of karmic debts. This line of the crossroads leads into the energetic signature of the 999 which is the completion of the energy Matrix of life lessons in this life time. This choice includes the healing potential of a number of life-lesson stamps and it leads to the manifestation of the first steps to mastery. When these series of numbers appear and show up very often in your present life, it is a powerful road sign from your Soul partner. The question is asked of you: "Which combination, which part of the crossroad have you chosen in this moment of the NOW?" The sacred geometric configuration within and without the Earth's realms are going through the massive recalibration process as well. As human-symbionts it is vital that we are fully aware of what is happening all around us without FEAR. With each choice we step into new realities that have never been explored before. We are the vanguard, the explorers and the adventurers of the new Galaxy.

The knowledge of numerology is an important part of the structure of creation. We created our life lessons based on this knowledge every time we prepare to reincarnate into a new human life. We choose our name based on the lessons we have chosen to learn and this manifest in the dominant aura colour upon birth. The following is the guide to find out your colour definition within this life span. First write down your full name that everyone knows you by including your last name. It is the name that everyone you know is calling you at this moment in time. For instance, if you are born as Margaret but now everyone calls you Maggie, Maggie is the name you need to write. Follow the chart and add up the value of each letter until it equals one number.

COLOUR DEFINITIONS

- 1-A J S RED, a leader not a follower, has lots of energy, physically very strong.
- 2-B K T ORANGE, Likes balance and is very tolerant, a natural peacemaker
- 3-C L U YELLOW, has lots of ideas, not always grounded tends to daydream a lot, loves freedom.
- 4-D M V GREEN, insists on peace, harmony and tradition very efficient and does not like changes.
- 5-E N W BLUE, very dependable, seeker of truth but has tendency to get into the blues.
- 6-F O X INDIGO, has spiritual understanding, helps others Love is very important to an indigo.
- 7-G P Y VIOLET, very intuitive, a natural teacher seeks perfection and brings calm to others.
- 8-H Q Z ROSE, a natural spiritual guide, very cooperative but very disciplined and sometimes too demanding
- 9-I R GOLD, completion of one lesson, has achieved vast spiritual knowledge, is aware of the Divine Spark and is a natural counselor and teacher., laughs and smiles a lot.

Definitions

- 1- RED- Wear this colour when in need of energy.
The RED person is an initiator, you prefer to lead. Not to follow. Being An individual is very important to you. You are ambitious and posses Physical strength. You tend to live your life to the fullest. RED is an advancing colour and encourages movement and great creativity if you so chooses. However, care must be given not to go to extremes for you can be very emotional and passionate about things. It is suggested that You tone down your aggressive, controlling nature and find positive channels for your energies to gain balance. You are quick to ANGER and forgiveness is not easy for you especially to yourself. The warrior-self is very strong in you and your sense of fighting for others and what you consider to be the right issues can consume you.

- 2-ORANGE- Wear this colour when feeling overwhelmed or unable to face challenges. BALANCE is the key word for you. You are a combination of red (physical) and yellow (intellect). You have buoyancy of spirit. You are a tolerant person. Orange people are peace makers and have the ability to bring together people and information. However it is essential for you to maintain your self-confidence. You are easily discouraged and tend to withdraw yourself from any kind of confrontation. You tend to hide behind humour to mask your discomfort and fear.
- 3-YELLOW- Ideas are important to you. You radiate optimism and joy when fully grounded and balanced. Beware of daydreaming. Reality can often be painful for the yellow person. You enjoy change, spontaneity and freedom. You have a gift for words but need to become more tolerant of others. You attract people to you, beware of becoming too self-centered. You wish to be liked but at times do not know how to behave towards others. You are very knowledgeable and assume that others should know this and accept all your opinions and advice. Share Love and pleasure to others and you will get it back a hundred fold.
- 4-GREEN- You are PEACE, HARMONY, SERENITY. You share the happiness of yellow and the tranquility of blue. You are a determined, efficient person. You often choose to finish what others begin and bring order to situations. Tradition is Important to you, change is not always welcome. Be aware that your choice should not be forced onto others even though you feel and know that you have the right answer. You are knowledgeable in the healing arts and can help others if you wish. However be aware of the EGO. For a Green person the ego can be extremely subtle. Keep a broader vision and except a more expansive view of the human world. Remember you have the potential to be the key to hope, healing and renewal for many. Keep close contact with Nature, focus on this task and it will bring you balance.
- 5-BLUE- Blue represents an infinitude to Being. Spiritual happiness and joy are expressed by you as soon as you choose to step into the SHIFT of Consciousness. You can assist others in this Life process. You have the ability to settle and calm yourself. You can bring feelings of upliftment to others for you portray stability and dependability as you walk the spiritual path.. You are a constant seeker of Truth for yourself. You are often unconventional and need the freedom to walk your path. When let down by life or others, you sometimes indulge in apathy, laziness and anger. You frequently choose to have the 'blues', you begin to feel sorry for yourself when things do not go your way. Your Ego-self can flare up suddenly. When this happens you will lose sight of the positive gains of joy and spiritual calmness. Being aware of this can help you deal with it. Do not be afraid to ask for help. It takes a very strong and wise person who understands the value of help.

- 6-INDIGO- You have found spiritual understanding, you can relieve others of fears, frustrations and inhibitions. You are able to see the Life process, therefore it is natural for you to be of service to others. You seek to create beauty even in the most sordid of conditions. Love is very important to you, without it you see no purpose. Hearth and Home is close to your heart. Be aware however that you cannot heal nor fix other people's lives. Although you see their problem it is not always in your best interest to get involved. Understand that each must experience their Choices and entering their drama might not always help them learn their Life Lessons. The spiritual Ego is especially very strong for Indigo people. Use your energy in a positive and loving way based on the strength of Self-Love. The way you live your life will teach others and help them in their life. The way you live your life will teach others and will help them in their life.
- 7-VIOLET- You are very intuitive. You accept nothing at face value, you have a probing nature. You seek knowledge, perfection and strive for the ideal. You are willing to make sacrifices to attain this. You have poise and seek to create a tranquil inspiring environment. You bring calm to others when you are tranquil yourself. You can be a leader and teacher to those who seek understanding of Life. However do not forget that you create your own reality, be aware of what you built. The Spiritual Ego is a very strong temptation for you. You tend to get bored with others easily and feel discouraged when they do not follow your way of thought. Patience is not always easy for you. Trust your intuition. Listen to your inner voice it will always guide you well.
- 8-ROSE- A higher octave of the entire Red spectrum. The violet component brings a great understanding of the Life process. The pink layer brings you your wish to wrap everything and everyone with love. The challenge is for you to fill yourself with Love first. You work with a disciplined driving force and have the ability to turn visions into reality. You strive to be very cooperative, you understand human psychology and can be an excellent teacher/ guide for mankind. On the other hand you can be very demanding and exacting but do not ask others to do more than what you would do yourself. Be careful of the Ego-control-self here. Your purpose is to help others and not to tell them what to do even though you can 'see' that their choices are not always the best ones. Allow them the Choice, we all learn from our mistakes.
- . Security in life is important to you, however be aware that trying to Accumulate worldly goods is not always in your best interest. Material things are part of the Earth vibration and are only on 'loan' for us humans to use.
- 9-GOLD- A higher octave of the entire rainbow color spectrum. You have a sense of completion and once you are aware of the Divinity within, you walk on the spiritual with the energy of Grace. You aspire to deepen your spiritual awareness constantly and have a deep thirst for knowledge. Hope, laughter and a quiet joyiness emanate from a GOLD person who is at this stage. You have the potential of being a wise sage, a counselor, or a teacher and can have a strong influence upon the world. You will use your inner wisdom to comfort sooth and guide others. People around you sense your genuine concern for you portray your authentic self easily anywhere. Thus you tend to be well liked, popular and often admired. You share ideas freely without forcing them upon other people. There is a terrific sense of perfection and wanting to complete and finish things up inside you. This feeling may cause you to become too sensitive, easily discouraged and often saddened. Especially when you realize that others have not reached the same level of ideals, commitment and understanding. Be aware of indecision, trust your own intuition, commitment and understanding. Be mindful and vigilant of the pressures of others opinions. Walk with the cloak of stillness within and become the observer with the awareness and knowledge of who you are. Once you realize that your mission is just to show LOVE and BE LOVE you will radiate the Golden light that is growing brighter and brighter within you. Know that you have reached the end of a cycle. Go within and embrace the awareness of where you are within this cycle of your Life Lessons. Gather the wisdom of all you have experienced during this reincarnation.

Note that within each Colour stage there are layers of gradient frequencies of each particular colour. The attributes will adjust according to each frequency reached. For all the Colour stages be aware of the pitfalls of the Spiritual Ego. It is more challenging at the higher colour frequencies. The Ego can never be killed or terminated. It is the vital anchor that keeps the Soul in the Human body. The Ego can only be transformed and given the job of supporter instead of the controller. When the Ego is not transmuted or cleansed, the positive higher attributes of each colour frequency is weak and looks watered down. It would be as if the vibrancy of the colour solution has been diluted. For the Gold person who is entering the end of a life lesson cycle it is the most challenging of all for the Spiritual Ego is at its highest persuasive level. When the attributes at each level has not been reached it usually has to be repeated in the next reincarnation cycle.

Having stated all the above, we now need to review everything with the frequencies of the recalibration process in mind. The changes have been initiated the moment the Harmonic Convergence came into play. The Colour definitions above are still in play for those who choose not to walk the path of the awakening and enlightenment process. They will continue to follow the process within the appropriate holodeck reality until they choose otherwise. For those who choose to board the first waves of Ascension into the higher Consciousness it becomes a whole new set of tools. With each chosen step, each colour begins to flow and mix in accordance with the flow of the human's progress along the path. When all 7 chakras have entered and anchored within the heart space, the re-configuration of the transformation of the rewiring system will enter its new phase of reconstruction.

What this means is that you can reach the Gold frequency in this life time if you so choose and are willing to do the work for it. The Auric Gold frequency is in direct correlation with the energetic currents that form the Golden Egg shape. It pulses and radiates according to the levels reached at each step in the alchemy of the transmutation process. When a person has reached the level of completion and has successfully transformed the Ego layers into a supportive energy the Gold begins to emanate a higher vibration of luminosity. For those who have the sight, it may seem as if there is a golden cloud of pulsing stars of all colours around the person. It is almost as if a new galaxy of stars has evolved in the universal existence for this persona. It is the beginning framework for the new Merkabah structure.

At this level there is a sense of detachment for the person. Worldly things do not seem to matter any longer. There is only a sense of becoming the observer, the audience of a re-enactment on the drama-stage of human life. Heavy human emotions have no meaning at this stage and becomes a kind of irritant, an allergy, giving rise to withdrawal from social activities that do not resonate any longer with the personality. Others may feel as if this person has gone 'cold' and does not show 'caring' or friendliness any longer. It is actually the opposite for this person has completely merge within the Oneness of the Energy of unconditional Divine Love and understands the importance of non-interference.

Fibrotic Matrix of Light

Sound as we now recognize is the basic foundation of all creation. We continue with tracing the pathways of the sound vibrations that emanate from and through the 'broadcasting' station centered within the fifth gate, the Throat Chakra. Since all the Chakras have, by now, merged with the Heart center, the Throat Chakra becomes an extension of the Heart. As we have realized the Heart has become the core, the very center pillar of Light frequencies we have coined as the Solar Power Center (SPC). It extends from the place where the Dan-Tien is (1 ½ inches below the navel) all the way to the throat. The Dan-Tien is the center of Life-Force energies that maintains and sustains human life on Earth. Martial arts experts and many monks have learned to tap into this pool of 'CHI' to channel power into their movements.

The throat is the 'antenna', the 'microphone' and the amplifying speakers of the Heart headquarters. Only filaments of light/love frequencies can flow through this fibrotic wiring system. Any heavy, smoky strands that are still broadcasted out of the throat usually originate through Chakras that have not yet been cleansed and healed. This means that the Chakra connected to that emotion/thought pattern has not merged with the Heart. When this happens, no new wiring system connecting the upper chakra centers to the Heart can be established. Within the Golden-Egg structure it looks like as if the energy wires are loose, unplugged and therefore no life-force energy (electrical currents) are flowing into the organs.

We discussed the role of the Ego in order to gain a deeper understanding of its influence and its effect on the journey of Enlightenment. The Ego's job is to keep us anchored within the darkness of Duality and the process of Enlightenment is to awaken the Darkness into Higher Consciousness. It is therefore locked and anchored in every system of the human construct. Dark words and actions flowing from the mental/emotional bodies when broadcasted into the etheric essence that surround us will create a kind of fog that dims the light of the Resident Soul (wires unplugged). This shadowy fog or mist can completely 'hide' the Soul presence from the Human vessel and create the illusion that the human is holding the power of control. The acceptance of and surrender to the presence of the Soul is the key that will open the doorway that allows the loving wisdom of the Soul to flow and clear the fog away. The Soul is the ultimate alchemist who has the ability to transform the carbon particles of the old wiring system into the silicon particles needed to raise the capability of the human wiring system to transmit more Light fibers. Silicon particles have the crystalline components that are able to reflect a higher volume of Light. The main assignment of the Soul-partner is to jar and awaken the human into the actions of purification of the lower emotional frequencies.

The conscious choice of the human mind to step into this purification act causes the rise of Consciousness in each atom within each cell and stimulates the alchemy from Carbon into Silicon particles. The DNA wiring system can only come into play and be activated when there are enough silicon particles present within the matrix. The fibrotic Matrix of light fibers is the holographic grid pattern that forms the new blue-print of the new model of a human-angel being, with the activation of DNA #2.

When the 5th gate, the broadcasting station, is beginning to function with the revamped programming then the next phase of the wiring system can begin. This next phase connects the Third Eye center with the Throat. The Third Eye center is blocked by the illusions of Separation and the non-acceptance of the integration with the Divine Creator. It is the rejection of the Oneness with the Universe causing the veils of forgetfulness of Self to thicken, anchoring the Self deeper into the realms of the Ego within Duality consciousness. The Ego-self of vanity and Will creates a very thick blindfold over the inner sight creating a kind of tunnel vision. The tunnel is controlled by the Ego and affects our state of mind, influencing our choices and plunging us deeper into the Drama of human personalities and attitudes. It feeds the illusion that we need a Hero to save us from FEAR. When we give the Ego the power of control it cloaks itself as the Saviour (Super-man) and brainwashes the human mind to think that it needs to be led in order to be save.

When we begin to broadcast a stronger and steadier current of emotions based on words and thoughts of Light fibers, we initiate the removal of the layers and layers of blinding veils. Once we recognize our limitations in human form and accept the reality of the 'Dream of the Soul' this corridor of the Inner Sight begins to open to the etheric vista of enlightenment. This releasing of the veils opens the gate to DNA #6 and allows the 'I AM' to emerge into a vast flowing river with a strong current of Light particles. Everything is connected through the communication fibrotic filaments of the DNA structure. With the clearing and stabilizing of the 5th gate it allows the activation of the wiring of the first set of the 3 DNA strands that form the connections within the biological Tree-of-Life structure. The Third Eye Chakra is named very appropriately for when the veils are lifted from this center it opens the potentials for the Third gates to open. There are 4 sets of Three DNA groupings and like a grid they are all inter-linked with each other forming a vast interdimensional Matrix of communication channels.

The Third Eye (pituitary) is intrinsically connected to the Crown chakra (Pineal). The Crown is the junction between biology and the higher vibrations of the Soul-team that is the ultimate link to the pure cosmic energies of the Over-Soul. The Over-soul is the direct lane to the Divine I AM that clarifies infinity of the eternal Divine Being. Unless we accept and embrace the reality that we are the immortal part of the human-soul symbiotic partnership, this gate remains locked. This gate together with the 3rd –Eye gate gives us the access into the higher realms of Consciousness and provides the clarity of inter-dimensionality of Beingness. The channel connecting to the higher flow cannot come into play unless the Third-Eye channel is clear and connected to the Heart. Opening and clearing both centers will give us the sense of Sacredness; of something Holy that is our birthright and fills us with the emotion of joyous anticipation of knowing what Home means. Denying and refusing to acknowledge the presence of the Christ Consciousness within the Self again locks this gate even more. We tend to create walls with the Ego-sense of unworthiness and often claim that 'I am only human'. That statement is no longer acceptable in the awareness of the Soul partner. It creates a containment field of shadows, of dark fog or mists around the brainwave patterns forming a box like atmosphere of darkness. Once we choose to surrender and begin to clear this fog, we release ourselves from the imprisonment of the box. Once again, we stress the fact that 'Surrendering' does not mean that you lose any kind of Self-empowerment or Self-identity and personality. It is the other way around, for surrendering to the Soul only means to step into the ultimate reality of Light where only LOVE exists. Within this reality there is no such thing as POWER. The word 'power' is a creation of the Ego persuasion of entanglement into the knots of darkness of arrogance and pride.

Once the connecting channel is opened between the Throat and the Brow, the Third Eye center is then linked to the Heart center. This allows a more fluid flow of communication between the Heart and the upper Chakras. The Crown as mentioned before is the gateway between the lower density of Duality and the higher connecting channels of the Soul relay column. Think of it as creating a long-distance computer/cell phone line to another planet. However, any hint of mental/emotional instability of the human will cause a kind of short-circuit event throwing the whole system into ungrounded chaos. Excess use of drugs and/or alcohol will initiate the same kind of chaos and unbalance in the circuit resulting in a complete shut-down of the power-grid. Think of it as a black-out situation when the power goes out in a city or neighbourhood. FEAR is the main switch that controls the grid and as we all realize by now fear is the Ego main power-tool of control.

Small, minor short-circuits can still happen when the human personality begins to waver in its choices. When the human mindset is persuaded by other illusions of the surrounding Ego patterns of others and/or the self, the fibrotic lines may begin to wobble. When the Human attitude towards the journey continues to divert more and more towards the persuasive 'words' of the Ego, the filaments begin to unravel, break and eventually completely dissipate. Or based upon the strength of the Spiritual EGO, the pathways split into the illusionary realms of the Astral planes. Here the human psyche embraces the belief that it has reached the higher levels of the psychic realms and is receiving channelled angelic messages. This phenomenon is often assisted with drug/alcohol use and it can become very addictive to the psychic illusions. When the human chooses to continue to indulge and strengthen this layer it often causes Soul-fragmentation. The belief that Soul retrieval is possible by another human facilitator is another illusion.

It is possible to re-connect the circuits later on but it will be more difficult and it takes more energy to heal the often-frayed wires. It is also not possible to achieve the same level of connections previously reached on the path way. At times the breaks are so unravelled that it is not possible to repair it in this life-time.

It is important that we keep in mind that all vibration is sound-based. Phone lines transmit sound frequencies of our voices from one transmitter to the next receiver and vice-versa. The same goes for TV channels, computers and smart-phones, tablets etc. There is a distinctive hum within any kind of energy flow anywhere in the universe. Another reminder how vital the 5th gate is. Some times some of us can begin to hear the high pitch sounds. This is the sound waves of the thinning interdimensional walls. Imagine standing close to a loud machine without earplugs. Our ear-drums are beginning to recalibrate to resonate with the sound frequencies that were too high for us to hear before. Imagine that suddenly we can hear the pitch of a dog-whistle.

We are all entering transformation towards a higher Consciousness. We are all passengers of the same ship, Earth. The Question for all of us who have scripted our destiny to inhabit this gate at this point in time must therefore be; How and what will I voice to turn the tide? Do I really mean it with all my heart when I say: "I Love myself and therefore I love you?"

Do you know where your ego is tonight?
Is it before you or is it hiding out of sight?
Is it telling you what is wrong and what is right?
Do you believe in its voice of might?

Do you speak with the voice of the Heart?
Do you hear the music from the angelic bard?
Does your heart sing, "I love me and you too."
Do you feel the joy as you drink this brew?